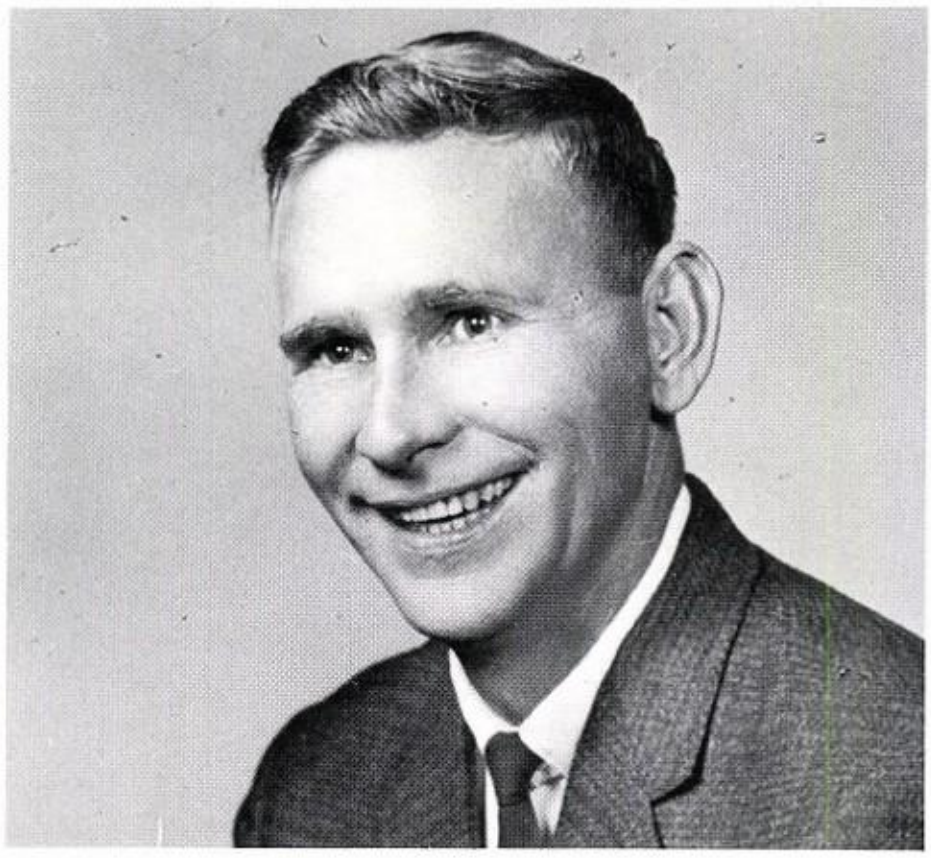
Congratulations to the Eagle Staff and its editor on this very fine annual.

To the Seniors of '67, may the days you have spent at HHS live always in your fondest memories. May the future be one of happiness and no matter how difficult the future may be, the "never give up" spirit of your school will carry you to greater heights.



Class History

In the year nineteen hundred sixty three, sixteen freshmen entered Haigler High. They were Mike Broad, Linda Carlock, John Church, Howard Clark, Janet Clegg, Myrna Collicott, Ardis Crouse, Pam Crouse, Peggy Daniels, Sherri Faylor, Mark McVey, Tom Pearson, Jamie Smith, Melvin Smith, Sharon Williams, and Shirley Williams. The Seniors cruelly led us through Freshman Initiation.

We lost Mike Broad, Sherri Faylor, and Pam in our sophomore year, but gained Gary Myer, Aaron Irwin, and Charles Pihlgren.

Right before Christmas vacation in our Junior year we finally received our class rings. After having to postpone our class play two times we gave "Tune In On Terror" on December 3. On April 29, we honored the Seniors with the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom. The theme was "In the Misty Moonlight." Hadley Barrett and his orchestra provided music for our dance.

Then the day came when we were Seniors. We initiated 19 green and humble Freshmen into the halls of H. H. S. March 31 we presented our Senior Class Play, "They Went Thataway." On April 6 we left for our sneak to Peaceful Valley, Colorado, where we spent three wonderful days in the mountains. After being forced to leave we returned and on May 29 the Juniors honored us with their Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom, "Moonlight and Roses". We danced to the music of Benedict Arnold and the Traitors. Baccalaureate services were held on May 7, in the Methodist Church. Commencement was held May 10 in the school auditorium.

Class Prophecy

JOHN CHURCH is running a Play Boy Club and receives alimony from a rich heiress wife.

MELVIN SMITH is a highly paid nuclear physicist. He is happily married to an old high school acquaintance.

HOWARD CLARK is a high ranking Naval officer in the Pentagon. He is responsible for "cleaning up" Vietnam.

MARK MCVEY, whose college education was interrupted by his service in the Merchant Marines, is now, after completing his education, head coach at an all colored school, (The University of Nebr.)

LINDA CARLOCK - Surely you've heard of Miss Linda creations! Dresses, hair styles, and make-up---

CHARLES PHILGREN - After his Marine service, Charley became an airline pilot for T.W.A. By the way, he is married and has two children.

GARY MYER is a partner in a car customizing firm. He built the car that won last year's Indianapolis 500. He married his high school sweetheart and writes poetry in his spare time. (Successfully)

AARON IRWIN has opened a famous chain of dancing studios. He drives sports cars in his spare time. Last year he was a winner of the Indianapolis 500.

SHIRLEY WILLIAMS, after completing her business course, went to work for a large business firm and like all good secretaries should - married the boss.

MYRNA COLLICOTT married a well-known sailor. She, her husband, and their three children have traveled around the world twice.

ARDIS CROUSE completed college and is teaching English and Math at Haigler High School. She writes songs for her folk singing group the successful "Wild Things."

PEGGY DANIELS, who studied agriculture in college, joined the Peace Corps. In her travels she met a "ruddy Englishman" and married him (love at first sight?)

ADA RICE is the social director for the dude ranch which her husband owns. She is going to participate for "Mrs. America."

SHARON WILLIAMS took two steps out of high school, met the man of her dreams, and is happily married. She and her husband reside in Denver, Colorado, where Sharon runs a dav nursery.

JANET CLEGG completed her college education and was "Miss America", but gave up her title after she met a career man of the Army.

TOM PEARSON took training to become a hairdresser and was world famous for his "Mr. Tom", creations. But the call came and he became a career Army man.

JAMIE SMITH - Gangsters are still trying to get her for the great work she did on the Jimmy Hoffa case.

Homecoming 1966

The 1966 Haigler Homecoming festivities started Friday, October 7, when at 2 o'clock the parade lined up at the school house. The Haigler Legion led the parade as it proceeded through the streets and downtown and back up main street. The cheerleaders led several cheers on main street and the band played at the intersection. The judges for the parade floats were Mrs. Dorothy McKay, Mr. Forrest Scrivner, and Mrs. Belle MacGregor.

That evening a large crowd came to watch the game between Madrid and Haigler. At half-time of the game, Gayle Blank, Homecoming Queen of 1965, crowned Mark McVey Homecoming King of 1966. Linda Carlock was crowned Homecoming Queen of 1966. Second attendants were Peggy Daniels and Gary Myer, and third attendants were Janet Clegg and Tom Pearson. Also at half-time, winners for the parade floats were announced. The Freshman Class took third prize, the Fifth and Sixth Grades took second place, and first place went to the Sophomore Class with their slogan, "They'll Be A Pushover."

Following the football game, the High School gymnasium was the scene for the Homecoming Dance. The theme for the occasion was "Football Heaven, 1966." The royalty and the attendants were presented their gifts carried on pillows by Ti Schliep and Steve Akey to the royal throne. The dance progressed with music provided by Hadley Barrett and his orchestra until 1:00 A.M. when the Homecoming festivities came to a close.

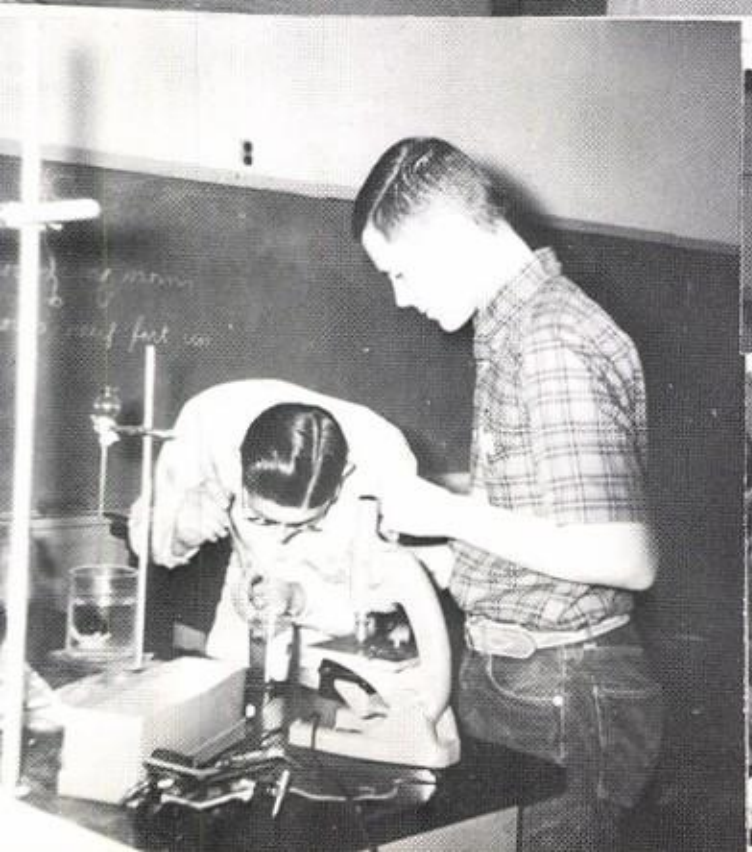
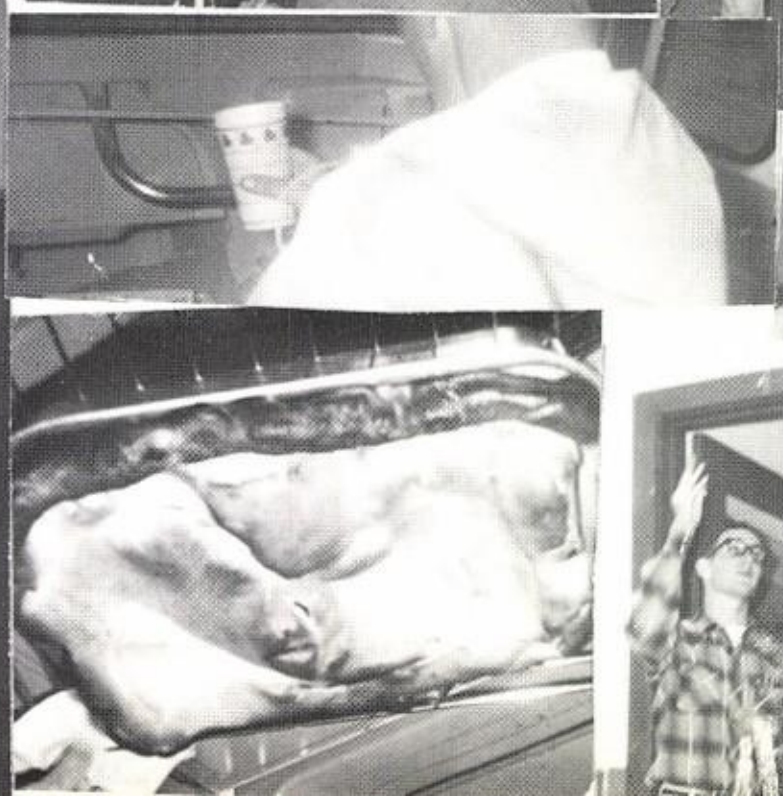
EMERGENCY DOO





Athletic Banquet

The Athletic Banquet was held on April 15, 1967 at the Lutheran Church. The theme was "It was a very good year." After the meal Mrs. Arnholt and Mr. Gaston presented the awards, and Mr. E. P. Baruth of McCook Junior College, gave a very interesting speech.

Jr.-Sr. Banquet & Prom

The Jr. - Sr. Banquet and Prom was held on April 29, 1967 in the High School Auditorium. The theme was "Moonlight and Roses." The evening started with the banquet at 6:30, and the dance started at 8:30 to the orchestration of "Benedict Arnold and the Traitors." The lovely decorations and enthusiastic crowd made for a charming evening. After the dance the Seniors all went to Mr. and Mrs. Neal Clegg's for breakfast.
